President's Welcome

September, 2018

Hello, folks:

I had a stroke July 25th and have resigned both my ADSPE President position, as well as Akron MATHCOUNTS Program Chair (within ADSPE) and Akron MATHCOUNTS Coordinator (with national MATHCOUNTS). Dave Tschantz has kindly agreed to take over all of this. If I can, I will try to answer questions, if asked.

Effective immediately, I am resigning from all "responsible charge" positions within all my 6 engineering societies/groups. I can no longer trust myself in such positions. Instead, I am focusing on my wife, Mary, our health, and getting my life in order at home.

You should hear more from Dave, going forward. He will need more support from you, for both MATHCOUNTS and the ADSPE Board. This is a good time for you to consider becoming active within ADSPE. Please consider it.

Best of luck to you all.
